

“Urban Data, Inequality and Justice in the Global South”

International Workshop

University of Manchester, Friday 14th June 2019

VERSION: 26 Apr 2019

Timing	Content
09:15 - 09:30	Introduction: Richard Heeks
09:30 - 11:00	Session 1: Talks 1-3 Richard Heeks & Satyarupa Shekhar: Datafication, development and marginalised urban communities: an applied data justice framework Shyam Krishna: Aadhaar-led identification and datafication among informal workers in South India: a data-justice perspective Loraine Kennedy, Debdatta Chakraborty, Ram Mohan Chitta & Ashima Sood: Data justice through the prism of information politics and resource injustice. A case study from Hyderabad’s urban frontier
11:00 - 11:30	Tea / Coffee
11:30 - 13:00	Session 2: Talks 4-6 Aayush Rathi & Ambika Tandon: Unpacking video-based surveillance in Delhi Azadeh Akbari: Spatial / data justice: mapping and digitised strolling against moral police in Iran Siraz Hirani, Bijal Brahmabhatt, Neha Lal & Bhumika Chauhan: Urban slums and data evidence: rethinking data-driven civic engagement
13:00 - 14:00	Lunch
14:00 - 15:30	Session 3: Talks 7-9 Denisse Albornoz, Marieliv Flores & Katherine Reilly: Mapping invisible voices: building a community-based data justice model for urban data collection in informal human settlements of Lima Catherine Sutherland, Bahle Mazeka, Sibongile Buthelezi & Duduzile Khumalo: Mapping and urban datafication in an informal settlement in Durban, South Africa Jonathan Cinnamon: Visual data justice? Datafication of urban informality in South Africa using 360° imaging technologies
15:30 - 16:00	Tea / Coffee
16:00 - 17:00	Flash research proposals and next steps

To register for the workshop, please contact: richard.heeks@manchester.ac.uk

A collaborative initiative of the Sustainable Consumption Institute and Centre for Development Informatics, University of Manchester, with funding support from the International Development Research Centre and Global Development Institute.